

Indian Institute of Integrative Medicine, Jammu signed MoU with two major hospitals of the country

1. Sri Ramachandra Medical Centre, Chennai
2. Medanta, Global Health Pvt. Ltd., Gurgaon

The major terms of the reference are

- Joint research & development projects in the area of basic medicinal, clinical and allied sciences research; drug discovery & drug delivery research, traditional medicine validation & standardization; and biomedical nanotechnology research funded by external agencies.
- Post graduate students project work to be carried out at IIIM
- Joint research and development projects funded by external agencies
- Organizing and participating in Joint symposia/conferences/workshop/short term training courses conducted by both the organizations
- Short term activities of mutual interest including technical consultancy
- Long term developmental programmes on topics of mutual interest.
- Extending pre-clinical toxicology/clinical facilities/trials for the bio-products developed by IIIM at the University/SRU
- Extending access to library facilities both for students & faculty is either of the institutions.